old, also the immortal "Old Hunwas the first to strike the grand old young lady, who sat near the rear of the

From his stentorian lungs they rolled, vibrating not through vaulted no man could behold her with indifference While this fair lady awaited the coming of cathedral roof, but along a grander the conductor with the utmost calminess of displeasure, while she said: "Sir, I'd and unconcern, the modest Hooten approached her gradually, passing through tike you to know that my name is of some consequence. My folks is respectable-er warious experiences with the many singular nor any nasty, low railroad folks as and stamped it with that faith's im- passengers that go to make up the unpleasmortality. Hence it cannot die! anthess of a conductor's life. His study of Neither men nor angels will let it pass throughout the trip, and saving the trouble the enthusiasm of a new and holier fessor whom sometimes they feared more than they did God. First the mothers heard, and then the maids.

Then they went to listen, and remained the unnecessary liquid replenishment of his stomach, that neither ticket nor funds the understand his stomach, that neither ticket nor funds the understand his stomach, that neither ticket nor funds the understand his stomach, that neither ticket nor funds the understand his stomach, that neither ticket nor funds the understand th to pray, aye, and to sing with throbbing being shaken into consciousness, as the dealer shakes a proof glass of liquor to your brother in the railway service?" from whom all blessings flow."

Can you find a tomb in the land where sealed lips lay that have not as Smithton station was next, the conduc-sung that tune? If they were gray tor took from him a much used satchel and "In the high estimation you place on old men, they had heard or sung Old Hundred. If they were babes, they smiled as their mothers rocked them to sleep singing "Old Hundred." Sinner and saint have Hundred." Sinner and saint have ty, loved "Old Hundred," and as she had but one good eye, which, as might be sang it, closed her eyes and seemed supposed, would be needed for professional Hundred! Do you see him now, sitting in the venerable arm-chair, his hands crossed over the top of his

The control tumbled need sideways, like a caged bear, and went through a process of
they "might be happy yet," but just then engine whistle announced the next station or preparing to faint.

She was probably going to suggest that they "might be happy yet," but just then engine whistle announced the next station
or preparing to faint.

Congel), where I eress Jones left the train
the sad affair. There can be but one verThe control tumbled need sideways, like a caged bear, and went through a process of
they "might be happy yet," but just then engine whistle announced the next station or preparing to faint.

Congel), where I eress Jones left the train
the sad affair. There can be but one verhands crossed over the top of his cane, his silvery locks floating off from his hollow temples, and a tear perchance stealing down his furrowed chance stealing down his furrowed has been portunity to learn the lady's name; which he wrote in his memorandum of passes, but he wrote in sounds indeed a sacred melody,

You may fill your church choirs You may fill your church choirs the time the train stopped at the station, state of purity, and health is the result. daring notes emulate the steeple and the car platform, armed with a ham, an cost almost as much, but give us the spirit-stirring tones of the Lutheran I'm ob iged to yes for the foine ride, Mishymn, sung by young and old together. ther Hosten," she exclaimed, with an ac-Martyrs have hallowed it; it has gone sided the bulky female to descend. up from the dying beds of saints. "Arrah, God rest yes; it :s foine attintions of the old our citizen yes paid me, intirely; and if ye'll call at an City fair, this week. The old churches, where generation me shanty beyant there, I'll be after trating after generation has worshiped, and yes ton drop of the crathur." where many scores of the dear dead you live here?" asked the gonductor. have been carried and laid before the have been carried and laid before the have, too; if it warent for the washin' I sowing it altar where they gave themselves to does for Al. Marsh and Jim McClure, taix farmers. God, seem to breathe of Hundred from vestibule to tower top O'C dishan off at her own shanty door. -the very air is haunted with its After leaving Tipton, and while passing best he has ever made.

bled company who have, at different times and in different places, joined in a twelve vear old boy beneath her skirts. the familiar tune? Can you number At first she positively denied such concealment. When the conductor insisted on rapt faces all beaming with the inspi- left the train, and as Conductor ration of the heavenly sounds !

band of ancient airs. Never shall our moved him before; the soft spoken "thank you" from Sadie was caught by his quick, ears grow weary of hearing, or our eager ear, and he took off his hat by tongues of singing thee! And when repressible impulse as she gracefully bowed and disappeared. we get to heaven, who knows but The incoming preenger, of the sex we what the first triumphal strain that call gentle, was scarcely observed by Conwelcomes us may be.

"Be thou, O God, exalted high house, go to Thomas & Co. for again and again, and if we understand correctly, the result has been most satisfactorily arranged, such as "two hearts that beat as one," etc.

SEDALIA WEEKLY BAZOO.

VOLUME. X SEDALIA, MISSOURI TUESDAY MORNING, SEPTEMBER 24, 1878.

At Jefferson City a lady deshed into the cor with that independence of gait and manner that would lead a casual observer little green writhing and quivering things.

"My name is Teresa Jones,' said she boldly, as the conductor extended his hand interrupted him. Her one eye rolled savon, as well as it could, in an expression

"You misunderstand me, madam," the

the conductor her ticket, but continued her

"You ain't the feller which belongs to this train generally, be ye?" inquired Teresa

"Law me!" exclaimed the female, giving her head a fierce shake; "he was a nice

"Diseased!" exclaimed the conductor.

your brother in the railway service?"
"Not a bit." she declared, bristling up

"But, my dear women-"

-If success depends upon health surely health depends upon pure blood. Dr. Bull's LAMONTE.

-The public schools commence here next

- 1 few of our citizens went to the Kan-

-A fine rain on Thursday night. Wheat

-Q. P. Taylor is now manufacturing a very fine article of a rghum. He says the -R. G. Yocum is circulating a petition sowing is now the principal but

LAMONTE, Sept. 21st, 1878.

conductor; handsome, too.

ductor hastened to explain; "I should for her fare or ticket.

"Your name is of no

NUMBER 17.

TO THE SISTERS OF CHARITY.

Who so nobly left their quiet homes in St. Louis to brave death in behalf of the stricken South, this tribute is respectfully dedicated by

ROSA PEARLE.

Journeyed they strong in their zeal to endure.

Looking with trust to their God upon high-

Wearing no charm but the love in each breas

Hearing again the sweet voice of Compassion,

"Tho' ye are burthened, ye stall find rest."

Seeking for naught from the pageant of glory,

Striving for anught from the coffers of gain,

Wailing its dirge from the woe of the South-land

Only to succor the friendless and helpless,

Only to smooth out the pillow of pain.

Only to list to the Dark River's roll. Only to comfort the last fatal anguish,

Only to pray for the rest of the soul.

Where desolation spreadeth its pall?

Nay ; for the warrior dies for his country

Honor be theirs where the angels have wr

Recording deeds of their Charity down-

Ah! they'll be blest in the land of the Loyal,

day. The farmers feel jubilant.

an investigation will be had.

prospective fortune which will soon be theirs They have an uncle who lives in the Old Dominion, near Harper's Ferry, and who is burdened with a fortune, estimated at one million dollars. He is getting old and wrote to his two nephews to property. The Squire, in company with his brother, left tor Virginia a few days fortune. There is nothing like being in ogo to receive their share of this immens come on, as he wished to divide joyed by one who has been there:

"I'm a lily of the velley,

If you get there befo' I do.

Tell 'em I'm a comin' too,

I wan't to go to Heaven when I die, without regard to color, to go forward and join the band, and help battle for the Lord.

throughout the country and were behind several months in paying off their hands.

-The largest stock, lower

Carl Schurs.

Oh, my Land?

Oh, my Lawd."

Finding reward for the Caoss in the Caows.

MARSHALL NOTES.

-Had such a fine rain here last Thurs

-The railroad will be completed to thi point in about a'x weeks. Slater is the nome of a new town twelve miles north e-st of here, and is reported growing rapidly. The machine shops will be located there.

#-James Regan who resides near Lamar.

Think you the warrior falling in battle

Angels of purity, angels of mercy,

Bearing no shield but the armor of pity

Out of the gate of the blest and the peaceful,

Out of the home of the sinless and pure, Into the vale where the death shadows le

"TICKETS!"

A Mo. Pacific Conductor's Experi-

Conductor Hooten's, as he entered the The solemn strain carries us back to the times of the reformers, Luther and his devoted oand. He, doubtless, ment in his mind. It was the face of a boldly, as the conductor extended his hand car. Her face was most beautiful. With chords in the public sanctuary of his a wealth of auburn hair, arranged in long curls, large bright brown eyes, and a gen eral animated expression, she was admired by all who saw her, and well she knew that no man could behold her with indifference place of the other, joined its indignant com-faces, with a view to remembering them into oblivion.

The blue-eyed girls of the "fader-land," sang those same strains with all sion of every traveler's countenances, which is a conductor's greatest boast and help, religion. They had been bound down and which only arrives at perfection to the prayer-book and the rosary.

They had raised adoring eyes to the spangled image of the Virgin, and long years of practice and patient endeavors. But when the conductor's quick eye fell on the face of Sadie Mathews, no art of business, no patient endeavor or long years of practice were needed to hold bent unblushingly before the carved her sweet picture engraved on his memory image of the Savior of signers. They image of the Savior of sinners. They

The impenetrable armor, which thus far had knelt at the dark confessional, and through life had shielded his heart from amiable as he is preposeesing,? assented Haggerty's breast. He died atmost as speakers of the district will be in attendhad knelt at the dark confessional, and through life had shielded his heart from the glances of women, fell off; vet, with the new sensation thrilling his being to the new sensation thrilling his being to ecstacy, and opening wide to his poetic fancy a heavenly vision of possible bliss, he was bound to the prosaic task of conhearts into the ears of the father conducting a train, and forced to conceal his ducting a train, and forced to conceal his brother which is diseased."

It aggerty's oreast. He distributed the ground. Davidson a minable as he is prepossessing, I should be shoot a young man named Shewalter who presume. He always reminded me of my brother which is diseased."

It aggerty's oreast. He distributed the shoot and attempted to the dark as to what the conducter's full meaning was; "very dispossessing, I should be shoot a young man named Shewalter who presume. He always reminded me of my brother which is diseased." emotion from a car-load of observing pas exhibit its "bead," muttered that it was too bad for a poor man to be (hic) abused "My brother was a respectable farmer lad (hic). There was no time to purley, and sir, and earned an honest livin' by the

Hundred." Sinner and saint have joined with the endless congregations where it has, with and without the pealing organ, sounded on sacred air. The dear little children, looking with another. He finally paid, under protest and threats of reporting the conductor and suing the company; but he found some than the consolation, as the train possed time next station, by thrusting his head out of the window and calling out to the engineers, she whose pure and innocent face haunted you with its mild beauty, loved "Old Hundred," and as she lost at the sain possed the conductor, hecause Ed. Stone, the engineer, had but one good eye, which, as might be lost a n-w hat a distance on of 'em saked me how come rude that one of 'em saked me how come and such that one of 'em sain and another wanted to know how allow and another wanted to know how allow and all sich. And all for my givin' 'em tracts on 'The Devil's Fo stprints.' Young men,' says I, 'you air of 'em; 'be you the keeper! 'Young man,' says I, 'you're a triflin' on the edge of the burnin' abyss.' 'Let 'er burn,' asys he. 'Young man,' says I, 'you're a triflin' on the edge of the burnin' abyss.' 'Let 'er burn,' asys he. 'Young man,' says I, 'you're a triflin' on the edge of the burnin' abyss.' 'Let 'er burn,' asys he. 'Young man,' says I, 'you're a triflin' on the edge of the burnin' abyss.' 'Let 'er burn,' asys he. 'Young man,' says I, 'you're a triflin' on the edge of the burnin' abyss.' 'Let 'er burn,' asys he. 'Young man,' says I, 'you're a triflin' on the edge of the burnin' abyss.' 'Let 'er burn,' asys he. 'Young man,' says I, 'you're a triflin' on the edge of the burnin' abyss.' 'Let 'er burn,' asys I, 'you're a triflin' on the edge of the burnin' abyss.' 'Let 'er burn,' asys I, 'you're a triflin' on the edge of the burnin' abyss.' 'Let 'er burn,' asys I, 'you're a triflin' on the edge of the burnin' abyss.' 'Let 'er burn,' asys I, 'you're a triflin' on the edge of the burnin' abyss.' 'Let 'er burn,' asys I, 'you're a triflin' on the edge of the burnin' abyss.' ' fare because he had lost a n-w hat a dismust confess," remarked the conductor.

God, and who, with faltering steps ascended the pulpit steps with white hand placed over his laboring breast, loved Old Hundred. And though sometimes his lips only moved, away down in his heart, so soon to cease its throba, the holy melody was sounding.

| Arrived, that her reservoir of tears was well night exhausted in advance. She weighed night exhausted in advance. She weighed night exhausted in advance. She weighed nonch, such the hands in white gloves, up rolled the one angry eye, and the green worms on Teresa's hat became more lively than before. The conductor blushed, and failed to fathom the mystery, until the lady with the one; good optic, recovered her speech and continued—"That's it. You're speech and cont throbs, the holy melody was sounding.

The dear, white-headed father, with his tremulous voice, how he loved 'Old Hundred! Do you see him now, sit dead and alive, declined to pay fare, on the strength of her connections. The conductor informed this person of large avoirdupois that she must get off at the next station (Tipton.) With an injured look she waved her old tumbled head sideways, like a She was probably going to suggest that cheeks as the noble strains ring out. more forcibly was that name written in his Do you hear that thin, quavering, fal-heart; and as he passed to the next coach he could not resist the impulse to glance back into the car wherein were so many listened for almost in vain? If you do disagreeable passengers, and one so beautinot, we do; and from such lips, halhanished by the smile from Sadie Mathematical disagreeable passengers, and one so beautiful that his trouble and perplexities were all banished by the smile from Sadie Mathews. lowed by four-score years' service in When part way through the last car, the the Master's cause, Old Hundred engine gave notice that Tipton was near at ferred to the depot platform, the conductor hastened back to assist her to slight. About Blood Mixture maintains the blood in a

THE CORONER

"Indade I does, and its hard livin" Old I don't know what would become of me." The laugh was on Hooten, as he put Mrs.

Think for a moment of the assem-Thursday, Friday and Saturday, of each week. Rates, one-quarter for corn, and one-sixth for wheat. for a dram shop in this place, while several others are circulating remonstrances against upon throng - convincing her, by raising her dress, she rethe stern, the timid, the gentle, the brave, the beautiful, their At California station Sadie Mathews the granting of the same. There is none needed here; it can be imported by the jug full from Sedulia or Knob Nuster as it is ation of the heavenly sounds! Hooten gallantly assisted the fair lady to slight, such a strange sensation disturbed his heart and his brain as never needed, and very conveniently as has been done. Clubs being made up and a wagon cent for a supply. pimples, blotches, boils, etc., which can be done by purifying the blood with Dr. Bull's Blood Mixture. Used everywhere,

Rome on Gambetta. Rome, September 21. - The Vaticas newly awakened emotions by the fair lady that left the train, and who by her be-witching manners and face had captivated has decided to instruct the French Bish me to spare no effort to counter - If you want to build a him. The train m ved along, but they met act the effects of Gambetta's speech. -Secreber!-Thomas has it wanner that would lead a casual observer to imagine that she had just been divorced. When she took off her veil, we discovered that a prominent feature of the lady's countenance was missing. It was one eye. Aside of this blemish however, and an Wm. Haggerty Yesterexaggerated expression of prudery, which rested with comical effect on her broad, rensburg.

KILLED!

repulsively reambling worms. She was dappled with freckles, had very bad fitting false teeth, and thin, reddish hair. She wore a cardinal colored dress with white ial telegram to the Sunday Bazoo. WARRENSBURG, Sept. 21. A horrible murder occurred near here madam," the conductor began, but the lady follows:

A SOCIAL PICNIC selected a man named as his especial victim. After endeavoring crass and Greenbackers all agreed that it days gave him an irrevocable negative. These, for a seourged and a perishing people, by insulting him, Haggerty told Davidson we i advocated. Mr Waddill is a perfect This evening as Mary and Miss Ada Mack Chamming no leaf from the haurel of fame. if he would put up his pistol and step out- ger tleman and made a host of friends, in side of the crowd to some retired place he would give him satisfaction. Davidson of this district in the next Congress of the replied that he would have satisfaction United States. right then and there, at the same time drawing a navy revolver and shooting was of an off hand character and c nested her lite, as he had it seems, once or twice Jones, presently

"I am not," the feller replied, good naturedly. The former conductor, Mr. King, has gone to Denver, Colorado."

moon as he struck the ground. Davidson ance. took effect. He then fired at a man licen mej rity, Mr. Abbe will be elected. by marriage to the man whom "Dead, sir," she cried, impatiently; "dead, he had killed. At last the crowd closed in on him and he was distribed and arrested. After tying him securely, he was brought

> HE WAS HELPLESSLY DRUNK. He was turned over to the custody of Con- Stray Pebbles from the Quarry stable A. J. Tyson and Deputy Tuttle. The only thing said by Davidson was, "what have I done?" He was searched by the officials, and in h s pocketbook was found an extract from a Leavenworth newspaper, of into Warrensburg, and by the time he

"Frank Davidson got on another one of "Rough members of our fraternity, I twenty-two years of age, and quite night for a short stay in St. Louis. boyish in appearance. He came to so soon to claim her. He whose manlarge, bloated-faced Irish woman, who began sniffling so long before the necessity hood was devoted to the service of his

God and who wish following a single following that her reservoir of tears was well

God and who wish following the service of his arrived, that her reservoir of tears was well

God and who wish following the service of his arrived, that her reservoir of tears was well

God and who wish following the service of his arrived, that her reservoir of tears was well

God and who wish following the service of his arrived, that her reservoir of tears was well

God and who wish following the service of his arrived, that her reservoir of tears was well

God and who wish following the service of his arrived, that her reservoir of tears was well

God and who wish following the service of his arrived, that her reservoir of tears was well

God and who wish following the service of his arrived, that her reservoir of tears was well

God and who wish following the service of his arrived, that her reservoir of tears was well

God and who wish following the service of his arrived, that her reservoir of tears was well

God and who wish following the service of his arrived, that her reservoir of tears was well

God and who wish following the service of his arrived, that her reservoir of tears was well arrived. Kansas, and was employed as a form hand

Davidson is undoubtedly much fatigued after the experience of the of the worst dye. He is supposed to day, and when at night he retired to sleep, mixed up with dark crimes in Kansas, and his dreams were filled with tracts, one-eved was probably hiding from the officers of green wiggling worms, and a fat Irish wid-der running after a straw hat, while a beau-tiful lady with auburn curls anziously awaited his return at Sedalia. justice. He has no relations here, and his former history will now probably be brought to light.

filled. The dancing, as it Iways is, was aplended; Lamonte and vicinity is noted canvass this county for the legislature. for its good dancers. The music was excellent. Lamonte has a string band that me and nothing shall I lack." Then Shep. myself, but changed my mind. Mike Kenwill compare favorably with any in the will said. "There is a happy land Farr."

There is a happy land Farr.

The mission was exmyself, but changed my mind. Mike Kenmedy started to run in on me, but I made on Blackwater, and after a few hasty prepmotion. There was shipped from this place, the last week, one car of wheat and one car of cattle.

state, and under the leadership of Mr. Robert Baldwin, will soon be the best. At 10 o'clock supper was served at the South ern House by Mr. Col. Kemp and his wife.

The table grouned under the good things which were on it. A refreshment stand in the tack room served capdies lemonade and oranges to the tompany. This stand was presided over -Mr. J. H. Ken-el received a postal by Messra. Walter Hardey and Morgan cord from Sedalia last Friday evening light. Among the young ladies present we Miss Rena Ferry, black silk. Miss Sallie Harmon, pure white costume with pink ribbons. Miss Leuh Johnson, of Green Ridge, combination suit. Gold ornaments. Miss pell mell from every direction, especially Johnson was very much admired by all from the interior of the hotel, but by a diland sought after by the young gents to trip the "light fentastic toe."

Miss Le Baw of Green Ridge, black silk. Gold ornaments. Miss Le Baw was very much admired by all.

Mrs. Blackwell, pure white swim ove black alpaca. Gold ornaments. money Mi-a Hassy, of Knob Noster, pure white. Stove. Gold ornaments. Miss Corgon, white swiss over black Min Alice Martin, white pecay, over lead colored alpaca.

Miss Mollie Martin, white pecay over black alpaca. Mesers, Rond, Yocum, Blackwell, Terry, W. Cracken, Keener, McCommell, Turner, auditor.

APPLETON CITY ITEMS.

Democratic Rally-J. R. Waddell An Inhuman and Diabolical Murspeaks to a Large Audience-Greenback Judge Younger Speaks to the Same Audience-Personal, Etc.

APPLETON CITY, Mo., Sept. 20th.

Yesterday was the day set apart and ex-about 5 o'clock this evening, that has cast, a gloom over the community in which it happened, and has created intense excitement in this city, where the murderer is backers who had assembled for the purpose living at Paris, Illinois. more confined. The particulars are as of seeing the show were sadly disappointed, until the news was circulated that the Hon. worked at the Spencer House until about was given to day by the people residing the day, and then "all was well." Mr. around Mason school house, fire miles Widtill being the nominee for Congress on family named Mack, on Southwest street. north of Warrensburg. During the day a the D-morratic ticket, from the Sixth Dis Guetig was a clerk at the hotel until his young man named Frank Davidson became triet, a lively interest was manifested in dissipation made him unreliable, and for him and at an early hour the hall was well consequence. My folks is respectable er intoxicated and very quarrelsome. He filed by an intelligent audience of all parnor any nasty, low railroad folks as appeared to be bloodthirsty, and finally ties. Mr. Waddill spoke for two hours and to Mary, and endeavoring to influence her

Lesder will become a slave to matrimony

Lext month. -A heavy rain visited this section last night, which was welcomed by all.

WARRENSBURG.

-Eggs are eight cents per dozen. -W. H. Lee took in the St. Louis their stoves. -Church sociables are becoming fash-onable again. -The Normal boys have organized a spattered. Speechless and dying she had -Heywand's Serenaders will be here next

-Buckwheat cakes and gravy loom up in the near future. -Quite a number of our citizens attended the Kansas City fair. -Mr. William Sanburn is now one of the teachers at the Normal. -Mr. J. mes Ward and wife left Friday eye, and without further effort she fell back

-Our schools are well attended. The Normal school is fairly booming as it were. -Ike Rogers got his right hand hadly burned in the fire at the Summons House quantities of wheat, and are kept running and ordered him to stand clear. A moment a very effective speaker. They have erect

-Mr. Prus ing has erected an addition to his brick building on the corner of Holden and Culton streets.

to learn she is recovering.

Bates county, where he will engage in teaching school. Success to you, Bob. Dr. George Steppe, ex-Mayor and Mrs. Martha Osgood were married in this city last Tuesday evening by Elder Monser.

Farr away." -H. Martin Williams wrote a letter to Secretary Sherman a short time ago and enclosed two stamps to pay return postage, he received an answer the other evening with the stamps enclosed, and still people will talk about Republican rescality.

Pr ce. Dancing did not cease until day- which read thusly: "Compliments Johonie Montgomery, weighs just 11 pounds. J. M." Which lead us to remark that the Bazoo tribe must be 'booming." -A fire broke out in room No. 19, at the Simmons' House last night about 9:30 alarm was given and people came ru-hing igent use of a Bahenck extinguisher, the fire was put out before much damage was from which his mind never wavered. Now money by buying the Economy and the facts to Light cratic Convention, has declined. He prefers the office of editor to that of auditor.

Collins, sho was serom the yard, in the thigh, making a painful wound. The first shot, instead of missing, so at first supposed, ledged in the abdomen of the murdered

Hughes, Gardner, Shepard, Woods and Koyl, of Green Ridge.

All enj-yed themselves very much and hope the band will give another ball ere long.

Round.

Hughes, Gardner, Shepard, Woods and Koyl, of Green Ridge.

-W. R. Thomas & Co. sell the Brilliant, the finest heating stove made.

HE BANGED HER.

An Innocent Girl Shot to Death on Her Knees.

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., September 20.-The most cold-blooded, atrocious and cowardis tensively advertised as the day on which murder ever perpetrated in this city was the Greenbackers of this county would as- committed to night about ten o'clock, by senable with their great leaders and pro-claim to the people their arms and inten-tions. Appleton City was selected as the

J. R. Waidill was in the city and would two weeks ago, when she quit for a vacation, and was temporarily living with a Only to lave the poor tips that were burning. william haggerty he!! the audience spell bound, as it were.

What he said, he produced figures and consented, but afterwards retracted, owing bis especial victim. After endeavoring crafts and Greenbackers all agreed that it A GIRL OF SIMILAR AGE.

the first named accompany him to the hotel for an interview with his mother. Haggerty

THROUGH THE HEART.

Before his victim fell, the murderer fired two more shots, one ball passing through was of an on hand character and c neisted mer life, as he had it seems, once or twice more of humor than lacts. Mr. Younger is the Greenback candidate for the Legistil overpersuaded by Ada, who was fearful that Guettg really meant murder. Upon their arrival at the hotel, Mary declined to which time same of the most country. two more shots, one ball passing through which time some of the most emment go up stairs, which made timetig frantic appealed to the night clerk, Ragedale, TOSUMMON A POLICEMAN.

-Judge Abbe, candidate for the State Ragadale did make inquiry for an officer, selver what would have been a valuable sereturned his fire. Neither shots, however, torial district being largely in the Repub- portance he fell short of securing one. In the meantime Mary passed into the yard in by the name of Blevins, a relative -It is rumored that L. M. Roese, of the rear of the hall, and was seen to be crying bitterly, with Guetig following her up, but what posted between them is not known beyond t e fact that Guerig was threaten ing to kill her if she did not marry him. Finally Mary started off, whereupon Gueng drew his revolver, but before he could use it Ada Mack caught his arm and begged him to relent. Whether

HE SHOT AT MARY. or attempted to kill Ada first is not known. Anyhow the weapon was discharged, the builet burning a furrow on Ada's cheek. The last named let go and ran screaming for help. Guetig then turned toward Mary and fired a second shot, which is supposed to have passed through her neck. She fell to the ground, then climbed to her feet -Our citizens are beginning to put up only to receive another bullet, which crashed through her skull and passed out at the the rear, making a horrible wound, from which the blood and brains spurted and be-strength to and raise her hands heavenward as if he seeching mercy when the inhuman monster advanced his revolver until the muzzle almost rested against her face, and pulled the trigger for the fourth time, exclaiming. "Damn you, ain't you dead yet?" This missile entered on the left side, the powder burning her tair skin and blotting out the and expired. The noise of the shots, and the screams of the girls who witnessed the horricle affair, al rued the hotel attaches, and several started toward the murderer. who seemed in them being an Indian preacher from the Nation. He belongs to the Oneida tribe of New York state, and is a good scholar, and NO HURRY TO ESCAPE. Michael Kennedy was the first in range, -The Eureka mills are receiving large but Guetig covered him with the weapon, transpired, el-e there is a strong supposi- occupied at night by white folks, who show tion that he would have been swung to the nearest lamp post. A newspaper re-porter sought an interview shortly after his -Mrs. Wm. F. Bahlmann has been incarceration, and found the miscreant quite ill for the past week, but we are glad ready and willing to talk. He actually eemed to glory in what he had done, and bore himself with a sang froid not USUALLY FOUND IN A CRIMINAL of the most hardened type, and particularly unlike one who has not yet renched higoing together three years, and were to have been married, but she broke her word owing to Regulale, the night clerk, who told her some truth and a good many lies.

LAMONTE'S HOP.

LAMONTE'S HOP.

Special Correspondence Sunday Norming Bazoo.

LAMONTE, Sept. 21st, 1878.

The Lamonte string band gave a ball in this place at the Grange Hall last Thursday evening September 19th. The weather and the reading by Miss Allie of the was threatening and kept a great many from attending although the hall was well silled. The dancing, as it lways is, was law shorted and the started to run from me; then I banged her. Ada Mack got in the way, and bands were made happy by the announcement that the money had been norther a line, has cooled the atmosphere and I don't know whether I hit her or not Then I banged her again, and she started to run from me; then I banged her. Ada Mack got in the way, and I don't know whether I hit her or not Then I banged her again, and she started to run from me; then I banged her. Ada Mack got in the way, and I don't know whether I hit her or not Then I banged her again, and she started to run from me; then I banged her. Ada Mack got in the way, and I don't know whether I hit her or not Then I banged her again. After she was shot she got up on her knew and held up the hands, and saws I: 'Mary, uon't you are the started for the results of the men resumed work; others joined the men resumed work; others joined the men resumed work; others joined the mob which started for other points banged her again. Then she fell over and I fail to Morrison & Wentworth's bank in forced shortly afterwards by about fifty others. The police were soon at the announcement that the money had been hept up, however, and both the shortly afterwards by about fifty others. The police were soon at the announcement that the money had been hept up, however, and both the shortly short in the way, and I don't know whether I hit her or not the announcement that the money had been hept up, however, and both the announcement that the money had been hept up, however, and both the announcement that the money had been hept up, however, and both the announcement that the monouncement that the announ The refreshing rain that fell on the banged her. Ada Mack got in the way, and the bracing winds from the and I don't know whether I hit her or not

I gave myself up, and here I am. I don't nothing has been heard of him. He took want no trial, no jury, nor anything. They all the money, excepting shout $700, which can take me out and hang me. I m done." he paid to Messen, Shull & Elliott, in satisfaction of a chattel mortgage. The hands the Howard Association of Memphis learning that the interviewer was connected with the press, Guetig told him to print it all. Guetig is less than twenty years old, severely punished. Mr. Reid is a young limited use of their lines in communidissipated in habits, and subject to epileptic man of great energy, and though a man of attacks, and his friends claim that he is moderate circumstances, has been largely deranged from strong drink and his love in business here, and this andden loss will for the murdered girl. Ada Mack, Mary's be quite a blow to his financial prosperity. companion, however, savs to-night, that while he may have been drinking, his conversation was connected, and he seemed that the deed is done, there are those who -Economy is wealth. Save theretened murder for the past ten days,

WARRANT THIS SUPPOSITION. Declined.

Boston, September 21.—John Boyle
O'Reilley, who was nominated for State Auditor by the Butler Demouf Heating Stove.

DAILY BAZOG

The oldest daily paper in the city, auensively read throughout the centra tion of the State, by business men, and ching all classes, it offers inducement advertisers as the best medium through ich to reach the public.

TERMS OF SUNDAY MORNING BAZOO:

Reported by Trans Mississippi Associated Press YELLOW JACK.

Number of Deaths Decreasing.

New York Swells the Relief.

Extensive Robbery in New York.

Home and Foreign Matters of Interest.

AT MEMPHIS.

Memphis, September 21.-It has cleared off bright and cool, and a more hopeful feeling prevails. For the past twenty-four hours ending at noon to day, sixty-four deaths have occurred, 19 of these were reported this morning. The Howard Association are busily employed furnishing transportation to many nurses who came here from abroad but whose services were not needed. Dr. W. E. Rogers, the physician in charge of all the Howard infirmaries, was taken down last night and is at present at Camp Joe Williams, four miles south of the city.

Marcus Jones, president of the Odd Fellows relief committee was stricken this is because the Marshall people didn't this morning; also T. J. Kealy, a volunteer physician from Sherman, Tex., who has been on duty at the Market infirmary: Dr. J. O. G. Gerin Barton county, was on a trade with Joe Castleberry, a neighbor, for a piece of land. Wayne, Ind., died this morning. Joe borrowed Regan's mules, and drove of Thomas Bacon, secretary of the Chickwith them, coming to Marshall, where he asaw lodge No. 8 I. O. O. F., and topped near town with his brother Arch Castleberry. On last Thursday Regan ar rived here and with the sheriff proceeded to capture Joe, whom they found at his broth- also died this forenoon. Richard Eber's and lo ged him in the county jail where lick, resident agent in this city of Jo-he now languishes. Arch, in whose posses seph Schiltz's Brewing Company, died sion the mules are, refuses to give them up, last night, six miles out in the counand Regan could not give the necessary bond to replevy them. He has gone back to Barton county, intending to return with the sheriff and a good bond, and take Joe and last evening. Drs. G. W. Tucker, the mules back to their old quarters where Dallas, Tex., D. A. Wilkes, Rebanon, Tenn., and W. A. Cosswell, Americus, -Squire Jonathan Herring, who lives Ga., have arrived and been assigned to in this county near Brownsville, and his brother, who resides near Bronswick, are in a streak of good luck. They are both Dr. A. A. Lance, Gen. Luke Wright, middle aged men and past, and are in good circumstances. This present wealth. McCleary and H. J. Simmons, of the however, is thrown quite into the shade by Howards.

AT NEW ORLEANS. New Orleans, September 21.-The weather is cloudy and showery. Deaths, 62: new cases reported today 105-33 prior to the 18th.

Extensive Robbery. New York, September 21.-One of the largest dry goods houses in the -The colored people are having a large protracted meeting and revival here. Quite city, has been extensively robbed a number of prominent colored orators and divines are here from a distance, one of the divines are here from a distance, one of there have been 8,000 pieces stolen. The police are now arresting thieves and go betweens.

night and day.

—S. P. Sparks conducted the recent term of our Criminal Court with a great deal of the bystanders could realize what had one half of the sents—the back seats—are transportation agent of the Eric Railway, to recover $100,000 back income tax on his earnings as the amount due Their singing is good, but can only be enfrom 1862 to 1872.

Mrs. Taylor, who was taken from a palace car on its arrival at Jersey City to the quarantine fever hospital, died there yesterday. She had traveled with her husband from Memphis, and was attacked while on the way. Her The white people are treated with great courtery, and form a very useful adjunct to the meetings, especially when brother Jones hands around the hat. All are invited, Turbulent Strikers. -Mr. Simeon Francisco, one of the graduates of the Normal last year, is now attending school at Ann Arbor, Michigan. attending school at Coming on the attending school at Coming on the see mother, but she didn't go in. After the country and were behind the country and t Washington, September 21.-This inforced shortly afterwards by about Lexington and had it cashed. With $7,000 headquarters and the troops at the arin greenbacks in his po-session, Taylor senal are ready to move at a moment's started off towards the line of the road.

New York, September 21.-The yond denying that he ent reained a thought to-night of killing Regedale, his supposed and the company will fall back on Reid and the tondamen of the firm for the Renevolent Association $500; to New prices, and best goods at W. R. Lieut. Kells at New Orleans, a copy of an open letter, recently published. Department to-day received from which he sent Senator Kellogg. The Lieut. Commander accompanies the Cincinnati, September 21.-Upon letter with explanatory remarks denythe invitation of a number of promiling emphatically that he was intoxical

Washington, Sept. 21.-The Navy

-Frost killer, at W.R. Thom

A Beautiful Circamian Constantinople, September 21. - A Circaseian slave recently took refuge in the British consulate. The con--Don't be talked into buy- ordered her retention and res -See the new North Star ing anything but a Superior Minister Layard to urge the Por tf prohibit the sale of slaves in Turkey.

MILL HIM SOME DAYS AGO, amount. Consequently the whole loss falls Benevolent Association $500; to New he did not enter a vigorous negative. Upon eventually on Mr. Reid. He has the deep Orleans, $3.000 and to Greenville $500. cating with the South and for the transmission of funds.

He was Intoxicated